Do you pay Georgia Taxes?

Help us REDIRECT Georgia Income tax dollars to Woodlee's Christian Academy.

Through the Apogee Georgia School Choice Scholarship Fund, Georgia taxpayers can REDIRECT, at no cost, Georgia Income Tax dollars to Woodlee's Christian Academy. Your redirected tax dollars are used to fund new student scholarships of 30-70% for students who come from families who demonstrate financial need.

HOW TO DONATE (REDIRECT YOUR GA TAXES)

The following process is for $1,000 and $2,500 non-corporate donations. Money to be donated to Apogee can be done one or more times during the year. To setup your taxes to be donated to Apogee, you may want to talk with your accountant to decide if it would help to change your withholding amount, set the money aside in a savings account, and then send the money to Apogee at one time.

One Step: Complete, sign, and notarize Apogee Donation & Authorization Form, Form IT-QEE-TP1, and send these documents along with your payment to:

Apogee Scholarship Fund, 3330 Cumberland Blvd, Suite 400, Atlanta, Georgia 30339

How to fill out the Donation & Authorization Form

Donor Name: your name — SSN: your social security number
Spouse Name: your spouse's name — SSN: your spouse's social security number
Address: your address — Phone Number: your phone number
City: your city — State: your state — Zip Code: your zip code
Email: your email address — School Name: Woodlee's Christian Academy

Donation Amount: enter your donation amount (Look at your last year's GA tax return and see what you actually paid to the state. Don't donate your refund, but the amount that the state kept. What the state kept is your tax due, and that amount can be diverted to a scholarship. You can donate up to $1,000 if single and $2,500 if married).

Filing Status: check the appropriate box for your filing status.

Place a ☑ in the Taxpayer Authorization Box

Date: today's date

Have the Donation & Authorization Form notarized by a notary.
Most banks have notaries who can notarize this form.

How to fill out Form IT-QEE-TP1

Page 1

Filing: Place a ☑ in the appropriate box for single, married jointly or married separately
First Name: your first name — MI: your middle initial — Taxpayer ID: your social security number
Last Name: your last name — Suffix: your suffix, if applicable
Individual Filing Joint: your spouse's first name, Middle Initial, and social security number
Last Name: your spouse's last name — Suffix: your spouse's suffix, if applicable
Address: enter your address details
Tax Year End: 12-31-2011 — Calendar Year: 2011

Contribution Amount: enter the amount your wish to donate (see note on donation amount above).

Page 2

Taxpayer Identification Number: your social security number
Date: today's date
Applicant Name: your name
Signature: your signature

For Additional Information: Apogee Scholarship Website – www.apogeescholarships.org
Woodlee's Christian Academy Scholarship Information – www.woodlees.com/scholarship.html